ABOUT US

Shree KDK Enterprises started its business operations precisely two decades ago in 2003 as an authorized distributor of DuPont™. Over time, our business has continued to expand, and in 2018, we experienced a significant turning point. This was the year when we embarked on a groundbreaking project to produce unique lifestyle products under our brand name, PXPER, fueled by our passion for innovation.

PXPER is committed to creating customizable, brandable, and sustainable products that are incredibly lightweight and affordable. Our broad range of merchandise is designed to match our clients' branding requirements, covering a diverse range of solutions, including product packaging, corporate gifting, event merchandising, and even fast-fashion product manufacturing. At PXPER, we take pride in delivering exceptional customer satisfaction and premium-quality products.

1

PXPER embodies contemporary values such as sustainability, affordability and customization.

2

Flexible and adaptable to its diverse customer needs and trends.

Brand Expedition

3

The company focuses on creating lightweight and sustainable products which align with the younger generation's emphasis on environmental responsibility.

4

PXPER provides a diverse range of products, including Air bags, Travel organizers, Rolla bags, and several others. In addition to this, the company offers a comprehensive suite of services such as product packaging, corporate gifting, and event merchandising.

By offering customizable and brandable products, PXPER appeals to customers who prioritize personalization and self-expression, which is a significant aspect of new-age branding.

Pxper offers corporate gifting, providing customized gifts for employees and customers to support companies' branding efforts.

We offer conceptual product packaging services that help companies create visually appealing and innovative packaging designs, enabling them to differentiate themselves in a competitive market and attract more customers.

OUR SERVICES

Pxper provides a broad spectrum of services to its clients:

We offer contract manufacturing services which help businesses to save time and money by outsourcing their manufacturing needs.

We provide design and production services for packaging materials and promotional merchandise.

Event merchandising is another service that helps clients showcase their brand at various events by providing them with customized merchandise.
